

Is your next FAA medical exam just around the corner?

Nothing is more intimidating to most pilots than the required FAA medical exam. FAA Regional Medical Officer, Dr. Chris Taylor will explain how it is possible to get a medical certificate even when the airman has a disqualifying condition.

Directions: From I-5, take exit #186, west on 128th St approx 2 miles where 128th St SW becomes Airport Rd to the Paine Field entrance, Left on 100th St SW to the first stop sign, turn left on 31st Ave to the Regal Air parking lot.

A message from the National FAASTeam Manager

Over 136,600 pilots earned WINGS credits last year. Will you, this year?
